Nutting's Latin Primer

By H. C. Nutting, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Latin, University of California.

50 CENTS

A book for upper grammar grades, that lays a firm foundation for further progress; gives a working vocabulary of nearly 400 words; interests the pupil in Latin as a living, rather than a dead, language; and teaches thoroughly the most fundamental constructions.

D'OOGUE'S LATIN FOR BEGINNERS $1.00

A remarkable book with a remarkable record of instant recognition.

Constructions are presented from the standpoint of English as far as possible.

The arrangement of material is logical, and fitted to the student's natural capacity.

In the vocabularies are given where possible English derivatives of the Latin word. They have proved a great help.

There are abundant exercises for translation.

There is a carefully selected and well-balanced vocabulary.

A very large percentage of the words occur five or more times in Caesar.

Never before in a Latin textbook have there been such illustrations.

A LATIN GRAMMAR

By H. E. BURTON, Ph.D., Professor of Latin, Dartmouth College. 90 cents

A new grammar and the only one on the market to-day which is sufficiently clear for the beginner and also sufficiently complete and scholarly for the college student. Its live, vigorous quality makes it extremely interesting; its method of showing the relative importance of facts is very effective.

HALE'S LATIN PROSE COMPOSITION

By WILLIAM GARDNER HALE, Head of the Latin Department, University of Chicago.

Cloth, 50 cents.

The book plans as much material only as can be written in one year; this is assumed to be one lesson a week. The entire ground may therefore be covered without leaving gaps in the pupil's study of constructions. The work is confined to those constructions which are common in Caesar. The sentences are not longer than those in other books, but they follow the narrative, are continuous, and are sensible.

The book contains a vocabulary, and most helpfully arranged tables of case-uses and mood-uses. References are given to all the grammars in common use.
